COME IN AND GET TO WORK.

WE HAVE A JOB FOR YOU.

Check this box if you understand the level of commitment demand.

Yearbook requires commitment. If you are involved in three sports, are taking AP Lunch and AP Physical Education, and are already working in several other clubs you are not going to be useful for yearbook. You need to be one thing this year; you need to be a member of yearbook. Everything else in your life needs to be secondary to this job. Yearbook is a job, not a club. It is work, relentless, often mind-numbing, detail oriented work. You need to be passionate about perfection. You need to be creative but organized. You have to meet deadlines, which means you need to be able to fulfill your commitments. We need students who walk the walk, not just talk the talk.

Check this box if you still want to join the yearbook staff.

"Everyone wants to be yearbook until it comes time to do yearbook stuff."

Why are you interested in a job on the yearbook staff?

What previous experience or qualities will make you an asset to the yearbook staff?

Do you have great ideas for the next yearbook? Let us know about them below:

If I make it onto the yearbook staff I understand...

- I will not have my photo in the yearbook more than once.
- I will have to take criticism about my ideas and learn to work together with other people.
- I will have to work before and after school and during my lunch period.
- I will have to keep the yearbook room clean.
- I will be responsible and careful with the camera equipment and computers.
- That my actions will have serious legal and financial consequences.
- That the yearbook isn't really about me, it's about us.
- That the yearbook is an inclusive, positive celebration of the school year.

Slackers, Jerks, Immature Goofballs, Trouble-Makers and Whiny, Needy Students need not apply.
