Introduction

Tradition, innovation, and teamwork are hallmarks of the Clarence Central School District, but key to our success is a competent, talented, and dedicated faculty. Thanks in large part to our teachers, Clarence is a recognized leader in meeting and, in many cases exceeding, the learning standards and graduation requirements established by the New York State Board of Regents.

The Clarence Central School District is dedicated to providing our students with an excellent education. Our district vision, "Together We Make Learning a Way of Life," calls attention to the sense of partnership and the shared responsibility of parents, students, educators, and the community needed to achieve this goal.

The Clarence Mentor Committee convened to revise the District Mentor Plan in the Winter of 2017. The committee recognizes the need for a comprehensive mentoring program that supports the needs of new teachers not just in the initial year of instruction but throughout the entire induction period. The Mentor Plan was designed to establish a dynamic and effective mentoring program and to serve as a resource for all teachers and administrators.

District Mentor Plan Philosophy

We believe a successful mentoring/induction plan:

- Provides interns with explicit, differentiated expectations, training in those expectations and coaching/ feedback to implement and master techniques related to those expectations.
- Involves all members of the educational community.
- Enhances recruitment and retention of newly-hired teachers.
- Provides a structured system for teachers to gain new ideas, share their experiences, and seek advice.
- Provides an atmosphere where peers can examine classroom procedures and teaching methods in pursuit of continuous improvement.
- Contributes to student success through the use of best practice instructional methods.
- Promotes the restructuring of schools by establishing norms for professional interactions and the work of educators.
- Promotes multiple instructional strategies based on student achievement level, skill of application by the teacher, and contextual factors.
- Promotes the development of a common vocabulary relative to effective teaching practices.
- Respects the confidential nature of the relationship between teachers participating in the mentoring program as essential to its success. It is incumbent upon all members of the school community, especially those integrally involved in the program, to respect the privileged nature of the mentor-intern relationship.
- Mentor and intern participation in mentoring activities is separate and distinct from the teacher evaluation process.

- Submit a letter of recommendation from an administrator or colleague.
- Participate in an interview conference with the Director of Curriculum and the Mentor Liaison.

In order to remain eligible, mentors must attend a total of 9 hours of approved professional development training every three years. Training opportunities will be available through the Clarence Professional Development Catalog. Unpaired mentors will be invited to attend meetings during unpaired years and accept intern observations of classrooms and instruction.

Matching Mentors & Interns

A team including the Director of Curriculum, Mentor Liaison, and building principal will match interns and mentors. Mentors and interns will be matched based upon the following criteria:

- Common building

It is the intent of the Mentor Program to create matched pairs based upon the greatest number of criterion matches. The team will give consideration to the needs of interns and the specific talents/resources of the mentors.

Role and Responsibilities of the Mentor

Clarence mentor teachers will work in a collegial role to provide guidance and support to probationary teachers in their first full year of teaching in Clarence and to regular substitutes appointed for one full semester or longer. Confidentiality

Confidentiality and trust are critical factors in maintaining the integrity of the Mentor-Intern relationship and of the Mentoring Program itself. To assure confidentiality is maintained, the following measures will be taken:

Mentor training sessions will stress the importance of confidentiality in the Mentor-Intern relationship in order to build trusting, supportive relationships between Mentors and Interns.

Data collected by the Mentor during peer coaching sessions shall not be shared with anyone without the express consent of the Intern nor may it be used at any time for evaluation of teacher performance. (Evaluation of teaching performance for the purpose of tenure or retention shall be based solely on the district's Annual Professional Performance Review (APPR)).

The Mentor Liaison will meet with all stakeholders to explain the Mentor Program and the role confidentiality plays in maintaining a viable Mentor-Intern relationship.

Concerns noted by an administrator regarding the Intern’s skill, knowledge, or performance should be discussed directly with the Intern, who may choose to share them with the Mentor.

Mentor/Intern Relationship

Effective mentoring programs are built upon the quality of the relationship between the mentor and the intern. This plan recognizes the significance of that relationship, and the possibility of matches between mentors and interns which may not prove beneficial to one or both parties and, thus, need changing. In those cases, either the mentor or the intern can initiate action for change by approaching the Mentor Liaison. The Mentor Liaison will work with both participants to remedy any issues interfering with the effectiveness of the relationship. Should differences prove irreconcilable, the Mentor Liaison will work with the Director of Curriculum and the building principal to facilitate the change process and new mentor match.

Mentoring Activities

In working with new teachers, mentors will focus on the components of professional practice in both the Marzano Art and Science of Teaching Framework model as well as the New York State Teaching Standards.

New Teacher Orientation

The 3-day orientation training prior to the start of the school year for interns will focus on the following components of the Teaching Framework and New York State Standards:

- Welcome and Introduction to the Clarence Central School District
- New Teacher Handbook and Intern Responsibilities, Annual Professional Performance Review
- Introduction and Overview of the Marzano Art and Science Teaching Framework:
 - Domain 1: Classroom Strategies and Behaviors
 - Domain 2: Planning and Preparation for Instruction
 - Domain 3: Reflecting on Teaching
 - Domain 4: Collegiality and Professionalism

Year 1

Mentors will assist new teachers in preparing for their annual professional performance review. As part of that preparation and follow-up, mentors will offer opportunities for interns to observe quality teaching. Mentors will also observe their intern(s) twice and provide feedback.

Mentors will meet with intern(s) on a regular basis throughout the first full year (or term of appointment for regular substitutes appointed for one full semester or longer) and log activities in the District electronic recordkeeping professional development management system (My Learning Plan) as required under Section VII- Mentoring Activities.

Mentors will encourage regular reflection on the part of the intern on the practice of teaching.

Year 2- Appendix- Suggested Mentor/Intern Activities

Year 3- Appendix- Suggested Mentor/Intern Activities

Documentation

It is understood that guiding and supporting a new teacher requires a significant commitment of time on the part of the mentor. Mentors will be required to keep a log of all mentoring activities and the number of clock hours of mentoring provided to each new teacher assigned to them. This log will be maintained in compliance with state documentation requirements and district recordkeeping procedures.

A minimum of 20 clock hours (from August-June) of “face to face” mentor-intern meetings, in addition to scheduled release time hours (if requested), must be provided and logged in the district professional development management system (i.e. My Learning Plan) for each intern during the first full year of teaching. District-wide meetings WILL NOT count toward the twenty-hour total). Mentor-provided orientation activities which take place prior to the start of the teacher work year CAN be included in this total.

Role and Responsibilities of the Building Principal

The building principal is key to a successful mentoring program. The principal will recommend Mentors who meet the criteria as outlined in the program. The administrator responsible for the evaluation of the Intern, as well as the Mentor Liaison and the Director of Curriculum will reach consensus on final Mentor/Intern matching. The building principal will, in conjunction with the Mentor Liaison, assist and facilitate release time for the Mentor and Intern. It is the principal’s responsibility to maintain confidentiality with the Mentor/Intern pair at all times. He/she will utilize the Marzano annual review process and complete observations in a timely manner to enable the Intern to benefit from constructive feedback and facilitate the Intern’s professional growth.

Additionally, in order to support new teachers, the principal will:

- Carefully consider the Interns’ teaching schedules to provide for an optimal chance of success.
- Be cognizant of the tremendous time pressures placed on Interns when recruiting extracurricular advisors and coaches.
- Reduce extra duties when possible, to enable Interns to focus on instruction.
- Assist in providing Interns with the resources they need.
- Make Interns feel welcome and be available to answer questions or address concerns.
- Be available to meet, upon request, with Mentor/Intern pairs.
- Attend new teacher orientation sessions when possible.

Time Allocation and Compensation

It is understood that mentoring requires a significant commitment of time. Optimally, the mentor intern relationship will be one-to-one. No mentor will be assigned more than two interns in a given school year. Extraordinary circumstances should be brought to the attention of the Director of Curriculum for review.

When the appointment of interns occurs prior to the start of the school year, mentors are expected to meet with their assigned intern(s) prior to the start of the teacher calendar year to provide a comprehensive orientation to the district and to the school(s) where the new teacher is assigned. When the appointment occurs after the start of the school year, the orientation activities must take place as soon as possible after that appointment.

Mentors are expected to meet with their assigned intern(s) on a regular basis throughout the year during a planning period or at a time outside of assigned teaching responsibilities. If possible, common planning time will be considered to facilitate this process.

Each mentor will have up to a total of 20 hours of release time, with a substitute provided as needed, to observe classroom instruction, to participate in training, or for mentoring activities with their intern(s) that can only take place during the regular work day. This release time will be planned collaboratively with the building principal.

Mentors are to assist interns to plan and schedule observations, visitations, etc. that occur during the regular school day. When this involves release time for the intern, the dates and times will be planned collaboratively with the building principal.

Mentors will receive a stipend for each intern they serve. It is understood that this stipend will be prorated for a partial year of service. If a mentor assists more than one intern in a given year, the stipend for the additional intern will be at a lesser rate since many mentoring activities are carried out in small groups. This stipend will be paid in accordance with the Negotiated Agreement with the Clarence Teachers' Association.

CBA Mentor Stipend

Program Coordination

The Clarence Mentor-Intern Program will be administered by the Director of Curriculum.

This role will include, but not limited to, such duties as planning professional development activities, communicating with mentors, serving as a liaison with external groups or organizations that focus on mentoring issues, and assisting in the preparation of materials used in the district program.

Program Evaluation

A primary goal of the Clarence Central School District's Professional Development Plan is to develop and implement strategies to enhance quality of instruction. This is accomplished through consistent evaluation of the Intern in conjunction with an effective Mentor Program. A formalized mentoring program properly and continuously evaluated helps to ensure quality teaching and instructional continuity by retaining talented teachers. Retention is most often achieved when new teachers are supported in their role as independent educators, feel valued by their colleagues and supervisors and are given guidance and specific feedback which enables professional growth. While Mentor Programs are primarily designed to meet the needs of the Intern, a well-run program also benefits Mentors. Past experience indicates that Mentors, as well as Interns, derive benefits and experience professional growth as well as a feeling of satisfaction from the Mentor-Intern relationship. Through ongoing assessment, the district will evaluate the benefit of the program to Mentors and Interns, the effectiveness of the program as a whole as well as the impact of the program on all stakeholders in the following ways:

- Mentors and interns will participate in an evaluation process at the conclusion of the year at which time they will be encouraged to provide a critical assessment of the program in writing to the Mentor Liaison. This assessment will be used to evaluate the program in general, make necessary program changes if warranted and provide direction for the following year's program.
- Data will be collected to assess the effectiveness of training workshops that were derived and developed out of the expressed needs of the Mentors and Interns (e.g. District/building level-specific technology support; teacher certification issues or classroom management workshops) as well as those scheduled by the Mentor Liaison.
- Feedback will be sought by the Mentor Liaison from administrators, Mentors and Interns to determine the effectiveness of scheduling and release time in an attempt to maintain continuity of instruction for students.
- The Director of Curriculum will meet in October and June with the Mentor Liaison and the effectiveness of the program.
- The Mentor Liaison will evaluate the program in consultation with the Curriculum Team with a focus on program effectiveness, efficiency of Mentor recruitment procedures as outlined in the Mentor plan and overall program management.
- Formal evaluation of the program will be distributed to the District Leadership and all active mentors.
- The Mentor Liaison may conduct individual exit interviews when Interns and/or non-tenured teachers leave the district. In the event that this is not feasible, a completed exit interview form will be requested from those leaving the district.

SUPPORTING BEGINNING TEACHERS

Traditionally, beginning teachers transition through five phases during their first year of teaching, including the following: (1) anticipation, (2) survival, (3) disillusionment, (4) rejuvenation, and (5) reflection. Awareness of the phases can help school leaders and mentors provide appropriate supports for beginning teachers and reduce teacher attrition. (Boogren).

ANTICIPATION PHASE - PREPARATION & PHYSICAL SUPPORT PRIOR TO AND DURING THE FALL OF THE ACADEMIC YEAR

Physical support involves helping new teachers with the practical or logistical aspects of teaching, such as organizing the classroom, gathering supplies, learning school policies, and navigating the school building.

1. The most beneficial aspect of the Mentor Program in supporting new teachers in the ANTICIPATION phase:
2. An improvement to the Mentor Program in supporting new teachers in the ANTICIPATION phase:

SURVIVAL PHASE - INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT IN CLASSROOM INSTRUCTION & MANAGEMENT

Instructional support involves coaching new teachers in planning and preparing lessons and units and developing classroom strategies and behaviors.

3. The most beneficial aspect of the Mentor Program in supporting new teachers in the SURVIVAL phase:
4. An improvement to the Mentor Program in supporting new teachers in the SURVIVAL phase:

DISILLUSIONMENT PHASE - COLLEGIAL AND PROFESSIONAL SUPPORT

Support in the disillusionment phase may require strategies to address any of the four domains in the art and science of teaching framework. Mentors assist in promoting a positive environment, problem-solving, and identifying resources helpful to new teachers.

5. The most beneficial aspect of the Mentor Program in supporting new teachers in the DISILLUSIONMENT phase:
6. An improvement to the Mentor Program in supporting new teachers in the DISILLUSIONMENT phase:
