CHANGE IN STATUS

Approval of the following non-instructional change in status:

Sueann Andrews, teacher aide at Clarence High School, temporarily increases her work hours to assist a special needs student participating in the varsity football program beginning September 4, 2018 through November 2018. Mrs. Andrew's increase in hours will be approximately 10 hours per week.

RESIGNATIONS

Acceptance of the following non-instructional resignations:

Kerrie Daniels, teacher aide, resigns effective September 4, 2018.

David Dzierba, bus driver, resigns effective September 5, 2018.

Nancy Riester, lunch monitor, resigns effective September 7, 2018.

Veronica Schroeder, school monitor, resigns for retirement purposes effective September 1, 2018. Mrs. Schroeder began employment at Ledgeview Elementary on March 1987. She continued in this position through September 1992 when she resigned. One year later, Roni returned to Clarence accepting a position at the high school as a monitor. Over time Roni's hours increased to where she worked the entire school day and worked in after school detention. A previous administrator described Mrs. Schroeder as a warm and friendly person who does a very good job. She works well with young people, anticipates problems and deals with them in a fair but firm manner. Roni retires after more than 30 years of service.

John Wisniewski, bus driver, resigns for retirement purposes effective December 21, 2018. Mr. Wisniewski began employment as a regular bus driver in September 2010. John has provided safe transportation of our students for the past eight years.
